Teaching organic vegetable gardening has been a passion of mine and have been honored to be able to teach to many at my homestead where practical advice is given through my many years of gardening.

This is exactly the way food should be grown.

The course is designed to be comprehensive to growing, maintaining and cultivating your favorite vegetables no matter what your level of gardening experience is.

Bonus for Tier 2 & 3

Lori "I am so glad I took Little Laura's Farm homesteading course. I kept talking about wanting to do a garden but she helped me get out of my analysis paralysis.

"You are such a great host and teacher. Sharing your passion for what you do has been transforming to me and my family. We appreciate everything you do!"
